Yatra Capital Limited

UNITED CREDIT BELANI GROUP

UCBG is one of the leading real estate developers with over four decades of experience and a track record of over 3 million square feet of successful development. It has successfully developed large residential and commercial projects in Kolkata.

The IT SEZ is situated within Calcutta Riverside; an integrated township development spread over 262 acres on the banks of the Hooghly River. The township includes commercial and retail developments including a golf course, school, hospital, hotel and IT park, all alongside a large variety of residential formats. The IT SEZ covering a land area of 25 acres and a consolidated built-up area of 3.3 million square feet which includes a residential development of 1 million square feet.

Kolkata is amongst the fastest growing IT centres within India and has witnessed approximately 70% growth in the past few years. This is almost twice the national average.

Calcutta Riverside will capitalise on Kolkata's lack of well planned integrated townships. The project has been conceived and planned by leading urban planners and architects and is proposed to be based on best-in-the-class township concepts. HOK (a leading international urban planner / architect) has done the master planning for the township, while Larsen & Toubro (India's leading construction and infrastructure development Company) has prepared the infrastructure plan.

Calcutta Riverside is located 15 – 16 kilometres from the centre of Kolkata and has the following development mix:

Kolkata is an important market and we are delighted working with RHPL under the able leadership of Mr. Sumit Dabriwala. "

Kolkata

Kolkata is the capital of the Indian state of West Bengal, and is the main business, commercial and financial hub of eastern India and the northeastern states. It is located on the east bank of the River Hooghly spreads linearly along the banks of the river in a north-south direction. The city has a population of almost 5 million, with an extended metropolitan population of over 14 million, making it the third-largest urban agglomeration in India.

Kolkata city has an area of 185 km²* however the urban agglomeration has continuously expanded and as of 2006, the urban agglomeration (Kolkata Metropolitan Area) is spread over 1,750 km² (676 sq mi) and comprises of 157 postal areas. The urban agglomeration has a large number of towns and villages. The suburban areas of Kolkata metropolitan district incorporates parts of the districts North 24 Parganas, South 24 Parganas, Howrah, Hooghly and Nadia.

* Kilometres square

Kolkata is home to many industrial units operated by large Indian corporations with products ranging from electronics to jute. Large companies headquartered in Kolkata include Dell, IBM, HSBC, ITC Limited, Bata India, Birla Corporation, Coal India Limited, Damodar Valley Corporation, United Bank of India, UCO Bank, Allahabad Bank and Vijaya Bank.

The city has a large unskilled and semi-skilled labour population, along with other blue-collar and knowledge workers. Kolkata's economic revival was led largely by IT services, with the IT sector growing at 70% yearly — twice that of the national average. In recent years there has been a surge of investments in the housing infrastructure sector with several new projects coming up in the city.

Recently, various events like adoption of "Look East" policy by the government of India, opening of the Nathu La Pass in Sikkim as a border trade-route with China and immense interest in the South East Asian countries to enter the Indian market and invest have put Kolkata in an advantageous position.
