YATRA CAPITAL ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF CHANGES TO THE STRUCTURE OF ITS INVESTMENT ADVISOR – SAFFRON CAPITAL ADVISORS LIMITED

Yatra Capital Limited (“Yatra”), the first Euronext quoted company having a mandate to invest in Indian real estate, announces changes to the ownership and structure of its Investment Advisor – Saffron Capital Advisors Limited.

Through its wholly owned subsidiary, K2, Yatra has 13 development projects and two enterprise level investments spread across India encompassing residential townships, shopping centres, offices and hotels, in total measuring over 27m sq ft.

Saffron Capital Advisors Limited (“SCAL”), is the Investment Manager to K2. It also acts as an Investment Advisor to another private fund and manages over USD 400 mn of equity under management for real estate in India. SCAL is held by Saffron Capital Securities Limited (SCSL), a global business licensed company incorporated in Mauritius. SCSL has a subsidiary in India (the India Advisor) - Saffron Asset Advisors Private Limited (SAAPL) which is a private limited company.

This is with reference to our earlier announcement dated July 30, 2010 wherein we announced the intended merger of SCAL and SCSL with IL&FS Investment Advisors LLC (“IIAL”), a leading India focused private equity fund management house with over USD 2.8 bn under management. We wish to inform that pursuant to receipt of all the requisite corporate, governmental and regulatory consents, approvals and permissions, the amalgamation of SCAL and SCSL with IIAL has been completed.

We also wish to inform that SAAPL is now a subsidiary of IL & FS Investment Managers Limited (IIML), the parent of IIAL.

The combined entity post merger has assets under management of USD 3.2 billion
